This Privacy Policy does not apply to any information you may provide to us or that we may collect offline and/or through other means (for example, at a live event, via telephone, through the mail or as a patient of Cleanbody). For avoidance of doubt, if you are a patient of Cleanbody, it does not apply to your personal health information stored on our HIPPAsecure electronic medical record Patient Portal. Our separate HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices that discusses how we collect and treat health information of patients of Cleanbody is supplied to new patients upon registration. While there is a link to the Patient Portal on the www.Cleanbody.health Website, the Patient Portal is hosted on a separate server and is not part of the Website.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

Information We Collect Through Automatic Data Collection Technology.

Our main Website <https://www.Cleanbody.health/> is hosted by Wix and therefore uses cookies and similar technologies, which are small files or pieces of text that download to a device when a visitor accesses a website or app. As you navigate through our Website, we may use automatic data collection technologies including Wix Analytics to collect certain non-personal information about your equipment, browsing actions, and patterns. This nonpersonal information will generally include information about your location, your traffic pattern through our Website, and any communications between your computer and our Website. Among other things, Wix Analytics will collect data about the type of computer you use, your Internet connection, your IP address, your operating system, and your browser type.

The information we collect automatically is anonymous information that is used for statistical data and will not include personal information. We use such technologies and the information collected by them to improve the Website and our service as it enables us to analyze Website performance, estimate our audience size, track usage patterns, save information from your previous visits about your preferences to customize your experience and speed up your searches and recognize you when you return to our Website.

Because we use cookies, we will ask for your consent to allow us to use cookies. You may refuse to accept browser cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if we use cookies and you select this setting, you may be unable to access certain parts of our Website.

We also reserve the right to use technological equivalents of cookies, including social media pixels. These pixels allow social media sites to track visitors to outside websites so as to tailor advertising messages users see while visiting that social media website. We reserve the right to use these pixels in compliance with the policies of the various social media sites.

If your browser sends a "Do Not Track" signal, only a generic cookie will be placed on your device while the website is accessed.

To the extent that you voluntarily provide personal information to us, our systems will associate the automatically collected information with your personal information.

Google Analytics

This Website may also use Google Analytics so that we can understand and analyze the usage trends and preferences of visitors in order to improve our service and develop new features and functionalities. Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our Website. This data is shared with other Google services. Google may use the collected data to contextualize and personalize the ads of its own advertising network. To learn more about Google Analytics and how they may collect and use your data, please visit: "How Google uses data when you use our partners' sites or apps," located at <https://policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites>.

You can opt-out of Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on available here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/>. The add-on prevents the Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js and dc.js) from sharing information with Google Analytics about visitors activity. For more information on the privacy practices of Google, please visit the Google Privacy & Terms web page: <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en>

If you make a purchase directly from Cleanbody through our Websites, we will also use the information that we collect to fulfill orders, deliver services and products and complete customer transactions, to process payments, and for billing and collections.

Email Policies and CAN-SPAM Act

We are committed to keeping your e-mail address confidential. We do not sell, rent, or lease your personal information to third parties, and we will not disclose your e-mail address to any third parties except as allowed in the section of this Privacy Policy titled Disclosure of Your Information: Who We Share Your Information With. We will maintain the information you send via e-mail in accordance with applicable federal law.

In compliance with the CAN-SPAM Act, all e-mails sent from Cleanbody will clearly state who the e-mail is from and provide clear information on how to contact the sender. In addition, all e-mail messages from us provide the opportunity to opt-out of receiving future communications from us by clicking on the unsubscribe link located at the bottom of any such e-mail at any time. After unsubscribing, we will discontinue sending the messages as soon as technically feasible.

Disclosure of Your Information: Who We Share Your Information With

Cleanbody respects your privacy and we do not sell, rent, lease, trade or otherwise transfer any information collected, whether automatically or through your voluntary action, to third parties (beyond what is necessary for the basic functionality of an online service or for fulfilling a customer transaction if applicable) without your consent.

We may disclose personal information that we collect, including that you provide, as described in this Privacy Policy:

- To our subsidiaries and affiliates, if any.
- To third parties including, for example: contractors, service providers and 'data processors' as described below, that we use to support our business and our Website. All such third parties will always be bound by contractual obligations to keep personal information confidential and use it only for the purposes for which we disclose it to them.
- To a third party, including a lawyer or collection agency, when necessary to enforce our Terms & Conditions or any other applicable terms of use, terms & conditions or agreement between you and Cleanbody, including for billing and collection purposes.
- To any successor in interest in the event of a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of Cleanbody's assets and/or business.
- If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Cleanbody, other users of the Website or the general public. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.
- To comply with any legal obligations such as court order, law or legal process, including to respond to any government or regulatory request and when compelled by a court or other governmental entity to do so.
- For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information.
- With your consent.

As previously noted, if you are located in the European Economic Area (EEA), this means we are the 'data controller' under the General Data Protection Regulation of any personal information collected through the Website, and we determine the purposes for which and the manner in which any personal information is used and processed. However, we pay for the services of third party 'data processors' who hold and/or process personal information of users of the Website on our behalf. We may have multiple data processors at any given time, including, but not limited to:

- our email marketing and email management software service provider

- our Website hosting and platform service provider Wix
- payment merchants for purchases directly through our Website
- Google
- Facebook
- Other social media sites

Note that, while the above entities act as data processors on our behalf, some or all of them may also act as data controllers in their own rights. For example, if you purchase a product or service directly through our Website, payment merchants decide which information they need from our customers in order to process their payments correctly. The payment merchants or other data processing entities may also exercise control over the other purposes that a customer's data is used for, for example direct marketing of their products and services, which is not within our control. The payment merchants or other data processing entities also have legal requirements of their own to meet, such as regulations relating to the use and retention of payment card data or other personal data. And, finally, each data processor has its own terms and conditions and privacy policies that apply directly to our Website users.

Because the Website is hosted on Wix, we agreed to Wix's Data Processing Addendum, which addresses how Wix processes data of our Website visitors on our behalf.

Use and Transfer of Your Information Out of the European Economic Area (EEA), the UK and Switzerland

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requires certain safeguards when transferring personal data from outside the European Economic Area (EEA), the United Kingdom (UK) and Switzerland to "third countries," which are all countries outside these protected areas, including the United States. This Website is operated in the United States, and third parties with whom we might share your personal information as explained above are also located in the United States. If you are located in the EEA, the UK, Switzerland or elsewhere outside of the United States, please be aware that any information you provide to us will be transferred to the United States. By using this Website, participating in any of its services and/or providing your information, you consent to this transfer.

The United States does not have the same data protection laws as the EEA, United Kingdom and Switzerland. While the European Commission has not given a formal decision that United States provides an adequate level of data protection similar to those which apply in the EEA, the UK and Switzerland, any transfer of your personal information will be subject to the derogation in Article 49 permitting non-repetitive transfers that concern only a limited number of data subjects, as permitted by Article 49 of the General

Data Protection Regulation that is designed to help safeguard your privacy rights and give you remedies in the unlikely event of a misuse of your personal information.

If you would like further information, see How to Contact Us below. We will not otherwise transfer your personal data outside of the EEA, the UK or Switzerland, or to any organization (or subordinate bodies) governed by public international law or which is set up under any agreement between two or more countries.

How Long Your Personal Information Will Be Kept

We will retain all general visitor personal information until you let us know you would like for us to delete it or unsubscribe from our email contacts, which you are free to do at any time. However, if you make a purchase from our Website, then we will hold personal information in our files for six years as advised by the IRS.

This does not apply to information from patients of Cleanbody. We will hold patient health information in our files as required by applicable law and until at least one (1) year after any relevant statute of limitation on professional liability has run.

How We Protect Your Information: Data Security and Information Storage

We employ commercially reasonable methods to ensure the security of the information you provide to us and the information we collect automatically. This includes using standard security protocols and working only with reputable third-party vendors. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorized manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

If Cleanbody collects sensitive personal information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. Customers can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon or SSL Secure Shopping icon at the bottom of their web browser or looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page.

However, please note that unfortunately no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to our Website. You acknowledge that (a) there are security and privacy limitations of the Internet which are beyond our control; (b) the security, integrity, and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and us through this Website cannot be guaranteed; and (c) any such information and data may be viewed or tampered within transit by a third party. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk. We are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on the Website.

We will notify you and any applicable authorities of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

Please note that any comments or information that you post on the Website, including Cleanbody's social media pages, become public, and third parties may use your information. We are not responsible for any unauthorized uses by third parties in such context. You disclose such information at your own risk.

The HIPAA Privacy Rule

The US Department of Health and Human Services provides: "The HIPAA Privacy Rule establishes national standards to protect individuals' medical records and other personal health information and applies to health plans, health care clearinghouses, and those health care providers that conduct certain health care transactions electronically. The Rule requires appropriate safeguards to protect the privacy of personal health information, and sets limits and conditions on the uses and disclosures that may be made of such information without patient authorization. The Rule also gives patients certain rights over their health information, including rights to examine and obtain a copy of their health records, and to request corrections."

You acknowledge that our operation of the Website does not constitute the practice of medicine, and specifically does not create a doctor-patient relationship between you and Dr. Diane Fong, ND or any other healthcare practitioner at Cleanbody. The information provided on the Website is for informational purposes only.

Notwithstanding the fact that your use of the Website does not create a doctor-patient relationship between you and Cleanbody, our preservation of your personal health information will be HIPAA compliant if you become a patient of Cleanbody.

For purposes of this Privacy Policy, "patients" are those individuals who have secured the naturopathic medicine services Cleanbody and completed all new patient forms. If you are a patient of Cleanbody, you will be provided with a copy of the HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices, which governs the information collection practices of patients' personal information by Cleanbody.

Passwords for Patients to Access Patient Portal

If you are a patient of Cleanbody, this Privacy Policy does not apply to your personal health information stored on our HIPAA-secured electronic medical record Patient Portal Optimantra. Our separate HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices that discusses how we collect and treat health information of patients of Cleanbody is supplied to new patients upon registration. While there is a link to the Patient Portal on the Website, the Patient Portal is hosted on a separate server and is not part of this Website.

As a patient of Cleanbody, in order to access the Patient Portal you will create a unique password. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the password and your Patient Portal account and are responsible for all activities (whether by you or by others) that occur under your password or account.

If you share your password with another person, Cleanbody cannot and will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to protect your password. If you share your password with anyone, they may be able to obtain access to your personal health information at your own risk.

Passwords to Access Purchased Products and Services

To use certain features of our Website, you may be issued a unique username and password, which you will receive through your registration and/or purchase process. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the password and account and are responsible for all activities (whether by you or by others) that occur under your password or account.

You are not permitted to share your username and/or password with anyone. If you share your username and/or password with another person, we reserve the right to immediately terminate your access to the Website, program, product or Service. We cannot and will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to protect your password or account information. You are responsible for activities that take place using your password(s) and within your account. If you share your password(s) with anyone, they may be able to obtain access to your personal information at your own risk.

You agree to notify Cleanbody immediately of any unauthorized use of your password or account or any other breach of security, and to ensure that you exit from your account at the end of each session.

By using this Website, you agree to enter true and accurate information as part of the registration, purchase process and otherwise. If you enter a false email address, or other false or inaccurate information, we have the right to immediately inactivate your account or block your participation in any feature delivered on or through this Website.

We will use our best efforts to keep your password(s) private and will not otherwise share your password(s) without your consent, except as necessary when the law requires it or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary, particularly when disclosure is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to others or interfering with our rights or property.

Third-party Use of Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

Some content or applications on the Website or e-mails sent to those who subscribe to our newsletter, may be served by third parties, content providers and application providers. These third parties may use cookies alone or in conjunction with web beacons or other tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use our Website.

We do not control these third parties' tracking technologies or how they may be used. If you have any questions, you should contact the responsible provider directly.

Third-Party Links

Occasionally we may include or offer third-party products, services, or links to other websites on this Website or our e-mails. This Privacy Policy does not apply to the privacy practices of third parties. Third-party websites may or may not have separate and independent privacy policies. When you access another website or purchase third-party products or services through this Website or our e-mails, use of any information you provide is governed by the privacy policy of the operator of the website you are visiting or the provider of such products or services. We, therefore, have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these third-party linked websites or their privacy policy (or lack thereof).

Facebook

As advertisers on Facebook and through our Facebook page, we (not Facebook) may collect content or information from a Facebook user and such information may be used in the same manner specified in this Privacy Policy. You consent to our collection of such information.

We abide by Facebook's Data Use Restrictions.

- Any ad data collected, received or derived from our Facebook ad ("Facebook advertising data") is only shared with someone acting on our behalf, such as our service provider. We are responsible for ensuring that our service providers protect any Facebook advertising data or any other information obtained from us, limit our use of all of that information, and keep it confidential and secure.
- We do not use Facebook advertising data for any purpose (including retargeting, commingling data across multiple advertisers' campaigns, or allowing piggybacking or redirecting with tags), except on an aggregate and anonymous basis (unless authorized by Facebook) and only to assess the performance and effectiveness of our Facebook advertising campaigns.
- We do not use Facebook advertising data, including the targeting criteria for a Facebook ad, to build, append to, edit, influence, or augment user profiles, including profiles associated with any mobile device identifier or other unique identifier that identifies any particular user, browser, computer or device.
- We do not transfer any Facebook advertising data (including anonymous, aggregate, or derived data) to any ad network, ad exchange, data broker or other advertising or monetization related service.

Please note that we may retain some or all of the information you submit for backups, archiving, prevention of fraud and abuse, analytics, satisfaction of legal obligations, or where we otherwise reasonably believe that we have a legitimate reason to do so.

You may also decline to share certain personal information with us, in which case we may not be able to provide you with some of the features and functionality of our services.

If you place an order through the Website, we will maintain your order information for our records unless and until you ask us to delete this information. We are required to keep some basic information about our customers including transaction data for tax and legal purposes and therefore there is some information that cannot be deleted.

California Online Privacy Protection Act

The California Online Privacy Protection Act (CalOPPA) is the first state law in the nation to require commercial websites and online services to post a privacy policy. ## California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA)

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) took effect on January 1, 2020 and is intended to protect the personal information of California residents. The CCPA has certain threshold requirements which a company must meet in order to be required to comply with its provisions. Upon information and belief, we do not meet those thresholds. In the event of a change in our status, and if the data that you provide in the course of your use of the Website is governed by CCPA, we will abide by the relevant portions of the CCPA.

If you are a resident of the state of California, you may have the right to: request disclosure of the personal information we have collected about you and the types of third parties with whom it has been shared; request a portable copy of your information; opt out from marketing messages or the sale of your information to third parties; and request deletion of your personal information. To make these requests, please contact us at info@Cleanbody.health.
